POWER AND TENSION OF PINOT NOIR – EGLY-OURIET

In the village of Ambonnay, where the soil yields some of the most esteemed Pinot Noir grapes in all of Champagne, Francis Egly stands as a beacon of Pinot Noir through the lenses of Champagne. As the fourth-generation custodian of the Egly family's ancient vineyards, Francis epitomizes the dedication to quality and tradition that defines his lineage. Certified biodynamic and meticulously focused on single-site expressions, each bottle reflects the unique essence of its origins.

Despite the inherent intensity of Pinot Noir, Egly-Ouriet's champagnes never compromise on freshness or purity. By arresting malolactic fermentation, Francis ensures that the inherent freshness of his Champagnes remains a hallmark of their character. Each sip is a celebration of the terroir and the fruit's natural expression.

With a global following of fervent enthusiasts, these champagnes are indeed rare treasures, eagerly sought after by connoisseurs worldwide. We consider ourselves exceptionally fortunate to be able to share a full collection of these extraordinary wines with you here at Atria.

THE PURITY OF CHARDONNAY – DOMAINE LOUIS MICHEL & FILS

Domaine Louis Michel & Fils, a distinguished family-owned estate rooted in Chablis since 1850, epitomizes the essence of the region's terroirs. Through generations of meticulous vineyard cultivation, they have mastered the art of crafting exceptional wines, showcasing Chardonnay in its purest.

What sets them apart is their unwavering commitment to stainless steel, eschewing barrels even for their esteemed Premier Crus and Grand Crus, thus preserving the unadulterated character of their vineyards. Their dedication to perfection is further evidenced by their selective late harvesting, ensuring each glass reveals the full spectrum of chardonnay fruit flavors.

THE TERROIR OF MORNINGTON PENINSULA - POLPERRO

Hailing from the beaches of northern New South Wales and South East Queensland, Sam began his career as a vintage cellar hand at Tyrrell's, a renowned Hunter estate, at the young age of 18. His passion for wine led him to pursue formal education at Charles Sturt University, further solidifying his knowledge and skills in the field.

After completing his studies, Sam joined Hardy's, a significant step in his professional journey. However, it was his subsequent travels to Spain, Italy, and France that truly broadened his horizons and refined his craft. His time in France, particularly under the tutelage of Jean-Marc Lafage in the Rousillion region, left an indelible mark on his career.

In 2006, Sam took the plunge and launched his own label, Even Keel. With a focus on producing wines characterized by brightness and drinkability, Even Keel quickly gained recognition for its quality and approachability.

Building on the success of Even Keel, Polperro came in 2008. Highlighting premium single sites in Mornington, he emphasises the distinctiveness of the sub-regions through refined expressions of pinot noir and chardonnay.

MODERN AUSTRALIAN COOL-CLIMATE SHIRAZ – SYRAHMI

Adam Foster's journey into winemaking is a tale of culinary curiosity evolving into a passion for crafting exceptional wines that express the essence of their terroir.

Initially trained in the culinary arts, Adam honed his skills in the kitchens of Australia and London. Despite his focus on the culinary world, he maintained a keen interest in wine, particularly the intricacies of cellar management and wine lists. It was a vintage experience at the esteemed Torbreck winery in the Barossa that captivated Adam, prompting him to transition from the culinary realm to the world of winemaking. Eschewing formal training, Adam embarked on an unconventional path, learning the craft through hands-on experience and mentorship. His journey led him to work alongside luminaries in the wine industry, including Stéphane Ogier, Michelton, Pierre Gaillard, Jasper Hill, and Chapoutier. These experiences provided Adam with invaluable insights and expertise, shaping his approach to winemaking.

The experience allowed him to establish Syrahmi in 2004 – derived from Syrah and French ami – ‘friend’. Initially all grapes were sourced - selecting grapes from a different vineyard each year, and naming the vintage accordingly. Syrahmi are always single clone, single vineyard wines, whereas Demi is a blend and made up of multiple clones and vineyards. La La is only made in exceptional vintages.

Adam's winemaking philosophy revolves around minimal intervention, allowing the true terroir of the vineyard and the nuances of each vintage to shine through. This approach emphasizes trust in nature's processes, resulting in wines that capture the essence of their origins. In 2017, Adam took a significant step forward by planting his own high-density vineyard in the south-east of Heathcote, further cementing his dedication to crafting wines that authentically reflect their place of origin.

THE PINNACLE OF SINGLE SITE AUSTRALIAN SHIRAZ - HENSCHKE

It's truly remarkable to see the legacy and innovation embodied by the Henschke family in their winemaking journey spanning over six generations. Their commitment to quality, sustainability, and preserving the environment through organic and biodynamic practices sets a commendable standard in the industry.

The recognition they've received, such as being named the Wine Enthusiast New World Winery of the Year and the Halliday Wine Companion Winery of the Year, underscores the exceptional quality of their wines and their dedication to excellence.

Moreover, their efforts in sustainable wine production, as evidenced by certifications like the Robert Parker Wine Advocate Green Emblem and Sustainable Winegrowing Australia, highlight their commitment to environmental stewardship and long-term viability.

Collaborating with the Henschke family not only allows for the enjoyment of some of Australia's finest wines at Atria, but also provides an opportunity to support and celebrate a heritage of winemaking excellence and environmental responsibility.
